Experience

MERN Developer Intern

Nullclass Internship • Pune, Maharashtra

02/2023 - 04/2023

As a fresher intern, I had the opportunity to learn and apply new technologies, tools, and libraries related to MERN development. This has involved self-study, research, and hands-on experimentation to stay up-to-date with the latest trends and best practices in web development. I followed standards and best practices, including writing clean, maintainable, and efficient code, and adhering to coding guidelines and project conventions.

Projects

News Application using ReactJS, Bootstrap frameworks and News API'S.

I was interested in creating a news application which allows user to read daily Indian news articles according to the categories like general, health, sports, business, education, technology, entertainment and science

Twitter Clone (MERN STACK PROJECT)

Twitter clone with some extra features like phone login system, Twitter Blue as a subscription model created using stripe payment gateway, and account/profile privacy feature.

Skills

Leadership, Good Communication Skills, Active learning and critical thinking, Able to work in a team
